Online via Zoom (Zoom link provided prior to event)

Presented through historical and advocacy perspectives, the new book Social Work and the Grand Challenge to Eliminate Racism shares a cultivated collection of evidence- and practiced-based research examining various forms of interpersonal and structural racism and their impact on both physical and mental health, as well as social well-being. The book's co-editor, Dr. Martell Teasley, will provide an overview of the book and discuss the anti-racist social work framework it aims to produce.
